Clowning for the Lord

On January 15, 2010, a very special guest joined Drayton Christian students for their all school chapel service. Once the worship team had lead the crowd/congregation through several uplifting praise hymns, Gus, the clown, entered the chapel singing "God Is So Good!".

Gus's message, told through many different magical tricks and stories, talked about perseverance.

Mrs. Redford helped Gus with one of his tricks.

Gus taught everyone the song, "I'm Gonna Go Right" accompanied by actions.

Smile real pretty, gonna act real goofy,
I'm gonna go right, go left, stop and pray,
Smile real pretty all day"*

As Gus was leaving, he was stopped by Mr. Webb who presented him with a gift from God. Having opened the first gift bag to find another, Gus pulled out a third, then fourth bag.

He showed frustration because he couldn't find the gift. Students encouraged Gus to be patient - that he had to persevere. Finally he came to the last small bag in which he found a balloon. He was very excited with his balloon and was ready to leave. However, the Lord directed him to blow up the balloon.

Upon blowing it up, he discovered a heart. Gus tried to leave and take the heart with him, but he couldn't move. God directed Gus to share the heart because God loves us, but He also calls us to love others. Once Gus shared the heart, he was able to move with ease. He left singing "God Is So Good!". Everyone joined in.
