With Glowing Hearts

Breton Elementary School's Grade 2 class was lucky enough to see a real Olympic torch that was used in the 2010 torch relay. Symbolizing peace, brotherhood, and friendship, the Olympic flame has been making its 45 0000 km journey across Canada, connecting communities and people.

The Grade 2's were to be able to see the torch up close and observe the shape, inspired by the smooth fluid lines left in the snow after playing winter sports; the size- 94.5 cm and 1.6 kg; and the Inukshuk, the Vancouver 2010 Olympic emblem that has come to represent hope and friendship.

The Breton students were excited to see it and are looking forward to the school "Olympics" coming up later in February.
