West Central's Student Talent Showcase

Kala Godin, a Grade 9 student at West Central, wrote the following review of the evening...

At West Central High School on Thursday September 28, 2011, students and teachers from student council put together a showcase. The showcase was a way to show the community the talented performers and artists that we have at West Central. Students from Sunchild School also joined us to show-off their dancers and drummers. It started at 6:30 pm lasting until 8:30 pm. The entertainment was free, as well as the snacks, much thanks to the foods class!

Many guests thought it was a competition during the beginning. Later finding out that wasn't the case. It was all just for fun! The students wanted to get out there and show how much talent they really had. As people started filling up the gathering area, you could feel the performer's nervous tension in the air. As I interviewed some of the guests I got some humorous quotes.

Mrs. Muncer, the Principal, stated, "Amazing! I'd like to bring out my cheque book to buy some of this artwork!"

Before the show one child asked me, "Is there going to be any rock music?"

Dianne Haagsma, an art teacher at West Central, said before the show, "Overall, I think the art is amazing and the music I've heard is fantastic!"

During the show a viewer said, "It's impressive how much talent is in our young adults! Some of these kids are really going to go far!"

After the show an adult said, "It reminded me of being on the X-Factor!"

Someone also said, "The Sunchild dancers are beautiful."

Even one of our own teachers rocked out. Katie Anderson's original song was the highlight of the night. It brought tears to the eyes along with goose bumps! Amazing!

Overall the Showcase was a blast. Everyone had tons of fun. Way to make some noise WCHS!

All of the pictures were taken by a grade ten student, Dallas Sponberg.
